Board of Health—Power to Make Regulations. (Act 63, Apr. 10, 1913.)

SECTION 1. Section 991, Revised Laws, as amended by act 42, Laws of 1905, and act 132, Laws of 1911, is hereby amended to read as follows:

“SEC. 991. Regulations.—The board of health, with the approval of the governor, may make such regulations respecting nuisances, foul or noxious odors, gases or vapors, water in which mosquito larvæ breed, sources of filth, causes of sickness or disease, within the respective districts of the Territory, and on board of any vessel; as also respecting adulteration and false branding of food; location, air space, ventilation, sanitation, drainage, and sewage disposal of buildings, courts, areas, and alleys; privy vaults and cesspools; fish and fishing; interments and dead bodies; cemeteries and burying grounds; laundries, stables, bakeries, poi shops, abattoirs, fish, meat or vegetable stores or markets, hotels, lodging houses, tenements, or any place or building where noisome or noxious trades or manufactures are carried on, or intended to be carried on; milk; poisonous drugs; pig and duck ranches, as it shall deem necessary for the public health and safety.”

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect upon its approval.

Top Minnows—Protection of. (Act 75, Apr. 14, 1913.)

SECTION 1. It shall be unlawful for any person to fish for, or take from, or be engaged in fishing for, or taking from, or to kill or to destroy in any of the waters of the Territory any fish known as top minnows.

SEC. 2. Nothing in this act contained shall be construed to prohibit the Territorial board of health or its agents or inspectors, or any person having a permit from the said board of health, from taking, moving, or handling such fish, or from taking or using the same for public health or scientific purposes in such manner as such board or its agents or inspectors may deem necessary or proper.

SEC. 3. Any person violating any of the provisions of this act shall upon conviction be punished by a fine of not more than $100.

SEC. 4. This act shall take effect upon its approval.

Buildings—Permits for Erection or Use to be Issued only after Certification by Board of Health. (Act 80, Apr. 15, 1913.)

SECTION 1. Section 992a, Revised Laws, as enacted by section 3 of act 132, Laws of 1911, is hereby amended to read as follows:

“SEC. 992a. No permit or license shall be issued by any county or city and county officer for the erection, maintenance, use, or operation of any building for which a permit or license may be issued by such county or city and county officer under the provisions of act 93 and of act 97 of the Session Laws of 1911, or under the provisions of any ordinance made in pursuance of said act or acts, and amendments thereto, nor for the erection, maintenance, use, or operation of any bakery, laundry, poi shop, abattoir, stable, fish, meat, or vegetable store or market, hotel, tenement, lodging house, or any place or building where noisome or noxious trades or manufactures are carried on, or intended to be carried on, for which a permit or license may be issued by such county or city and county officer under said acts or any other acts, except upon a certificate of the board of health, which certificate shall be furnished free of charge, setting forth that an agent of said board has examined the place, land, and building on, in, or to which it is proposed to erect, move, maintain, use, or operate said building, bakery, laundry, poi shop, abattoir, stable, fish, meat, or vegetable store, or market, hotel, tenement, lodging house, or place or building where noisome or noxious trades or manufactures are carried on or intended to be carried on, and that such place, land, or building is in a fit and sanitary condition suitable for the purpose for which the premises are intended to be used; that facilities have been provided therein and thereon for proper drainage and sewerage disposal; that provision has been made in the plans and specifications of proposed buildings, or of alterations of existing buildings, for proper ventilation and air space and for water and sewerage disposal, and that the location is at the time a proper one for the nature of the business to be there carried on without danger to public health. No such permit shall be issued except upon a condition, which shall be embodied in the permit and which shall be binding upon the licensee, that such place, land, or building shall be kept and maintained by the licensee in good sanitary condition in accordance with general health laws, regulations, and orders of the board of health during the term of the license. The board of health is hereby authorized to direct the cancellation of any such permit or license issued by any county or city and county officer, in case any such place, land, or building fails at any time and in any respect to meet the requirements of the general health laws, regulations, and orders of the board of health."

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect upon its approval.

Births, Marriages, and Deaths—Registration of. (Act 86, Apr. 19, 1913.)

SECTION 1. Section 1148, Revised Laws, is hereby amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 1148. 'Board,' 'registrar,' 'registrar general,' defined.—Wherever in this chapter the word 'board' is used, it shall refer to and mean the board of health of the Territory of Hawaii, unless the context shall indicate some other meaning. Wherever in this chapter the word 'registrar' is used, it shall refer to and mean the registrar or registrars of births, deaths, and marriages, who shall be appointed by the board of health. Whenever in this chapter the word 'registrar general' is used, it shall refer to and mean the registrar general of births, deaths, and marriages, who shall be appointed by the board of health and whose principal office shall be kept in the city and county of Honolulu."

SEC. 2. Section 1155, Revised Laws, as amended by act 131, Laws of 1909, is hereby amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 1155. Records sent to the registrar general.—It shall be the duty of each registrar at the end of each month to transmit to the registrar general a full copy of the records of births, deaths, and marriages made by him during said month, in such form and manner and upon such blanks as the board may require."

SEC. 3. Section 1157, Revised Laws, as amended by act 131, Laws of 1909, is hereby amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 1157. Filing records.—It shall be the duty of the registrar general to file the records of births, deaths, and marriages received from the several registrars, and as soon as practicable bind the same in compact form in the manner hereinafter provided. The records of births, deaths, and marriages, and the island and districts in which they occurred, shall each be kept separately in chronological order."

SEC. 4. Section 1159, Revised Laws, is hereby amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 1159. Certified copies, evidence.—The registrar general shall furnish to any person applying for the same a certified copy of the record of any birth, death, and marriage contained in any of the records kept under or by virtue of this chapter; such certified copy shall be competent evidence in any court of the fact therein contained, for which certified copy the sum of one dollar shall be charged and paid and accounted for to the treasury."

SEC. 5. This act shall take effect upon its approval.
